

I do not want more deregulation of ownership rules. Public frequencies belong to the public, and we have the right to ensure diversity. In fact, I support more regulation, so we can require public affairs and community coverage.